

In 2011 SNAP students and staff began planning to build a garden outside our room.

This garden will have elements from each of the five senses.

Albany Creek State School Sensory Garden

Together we will make a garden that we are all proud of and hope everyone in the school will enjoy it with us.

Our Five Senses

Touch

Smell

Hear

Sight

Taste

